Ms. Strauss

What a treat! Your exciting and interesting visit to the Introduction to Business class will surely be the highlight of the semester.

The students were captivated by your enthusiasm, advice and colorful story of coming to California as a teen and ultimately owning and managing such a successful business. I especially appreciate your references to business ethics, respect, confidence, high-standards, and persistence.

You made the subject and the day fun! You are a very gifted teacher!

Thank you,

Susan Chamberlain
